large crowd of local sandlot fans con to witness the opening of the Gov-rnment League. The Marine Band in full dress uniform, along with a number of government officials, were present. Secretary Redfield, of the Department rce, threw out the first ball and started the teams into action. This action was topped off with the poor handling of the ball and what the fans witnessed in five innings of play, reads: Commissioners, 13; Marines, 10.

Commissioners, 13; Marines, 10.

King Brady did the hurling for the Commissioners and was as wild at a March hare, putting eight Marines on base by the base-on-balls route, while Brewer, who started for the Marines, lasted but one-third of an inning, due to, his wildness and the poor support siven him by his club. The Commissioners gathered twelve of its thirteen tallies in the opening frame when the last season's champions played like a bunch the commission of the league liest season's champions played like a bunch the commission of the league liest season, defeated the St. Margaret team by a score of 5 to 2.
